

Level 3 Diploma in Textile Design & Manufacture

(Technical Certificate)

Target Audience & Prerequisites

The Level 3 Diploma in Textile Design & Manufacture has been designed to give candidates a good working knowledge of general textile technology. The flexible delivery of the training and content aligned more closely to individual company requirements reduces the amount of time away from the workplace (15 days at the Centre). The number of guided learning hours is normally around 260 with a credit value of 37.

Course Outline

To gain the Level 3 Diploma in Textile Design & Manufacture, candidates must undertake assessments for three mandatory units plus 2 units from option group B, plus the associated assignment. Candidates may also take additional units from option group B to enhance their knowledge and skills. A certificate of unit credit will be issued for any such unit achieved. (see over)

- Learners must sign and date all work that they produce themselves. This is verifying that they have produced the submitted work.
- Learners must also complete a Statement of Authenticity and include it in their portfolio.
- Assessment of the award will be carried out by the course tutor (assessor) and verified by an Internal Verifier working at the centre. Assessment will be in the form of 2 ‘phase tests’ and 3 written assignments, together with a portfolio of evidence covering the ‘practical’ exercises.
- All work will be moderated externally by an External Verifier appointed by the awarding body, ABC Awards.
